Rabbi Daniel Coleman and 6th grade students at Yeshiva of Central Queens packaging mishloach manos for patients at North Shore University Hospital and for pediatric patients at Cohen's Children's Hospital. Ingredients were donated by Drs. Gita and Jay Lisker, physicians at North Shore, in celebration of their daughter Talia's bat mitzvah.

Dressed in costume, Yeshiva Har Torah schoolchildren entertained residents at Atria Kew Gardens in honor of Purim. The children sang traditional songs and distributed gift bags.
