Liska Shul Marks Yahrtzeit Of Tal Chaim of Liska, Zy"a

The Liska Rebbe, shlita, marked the yahrtzeit of the Tal Chaim of Liska, Harav Chaim Friedlander, zy"a. Born in Kleinverdan, Hungary, he was a sixth-generation descendant of the Maharsha, as well as a descendant of the Maharal of Prague, the Taz, the Bach, the Shelah Hakadosh, and the Baal Smichos Chachamim, zecher tzaddikim livrachah.

He married the third daughter of the first Liska Rebbe, zy"a, Harav Tzvi Hersh, the Ach Pri Tevuah. He served as Rav of Erdobenyne, then became Dayan in Liska, in the Tokay region of Hungary. When his father-in-law was niftar in 1874, Rav Chaim succeeded him.

The Liska Rebbe, shlita, is at the dais (R), together with Harav Avrohom Friedlander, Hivnover Rav (C) and Harav Tzvi Weiss, Uheler Rav (L).
